Spend 2 hours walking around a city center neighborhood (this can be focused on an area of your choosing if you like) and learn not only about the history of Amsterdam and the daily life of the Dutch, but also the history of Dutch beer brands and their local spirit, Jenever (also known as Dutch gin). You will visit two local pubs and have two drinks at each pub (local beer, wine, soft drink, or a local spirit).

After the walking tour your guide will escort you to the restaurant Grand Café 1884 and leave you there to enjoy a 3-course dinner with choices for a starter, main dish, and dessert. The restaurant is located a few blocks opposite the Central rail station, for easy access to the trams to get back to your Amsterdam hotel; or if it's a lovely evening you can enjoy a stroll along the various canals.
